ABOUT NASHVILLE RESCUE MISSION

Nashville Rescue Mission is a place of hope and transformation for those facing homelessness, hunger, and hardship. What began in 1954 as a small downtown refuge for men in crisis has grown into a comprehensive ministry serving more than 7,000 men, women, and children each year across two campuses.

Every day, the Mission provides warm meals, safe shelter, life recovery programs, and essential resources to help individuals rebuild their lives. But beyond the services offered, Nashville Rescue Mission is a place where people are met with dignity, compassion, and the opportunity for lasting change.

This work is only possible because of the faithful support of our community. Sponsorships play a vital role in helping us continue this ministry, meeting urgent physical needs while also offering spiritual support and long-term hope.
